Policy for Slow and Advanced Learners

- At the beginning of academic year, students are categorized as slow learners and advanced learners based upon their performance in the previous examination.
- The teachers are suggested to engage extra classes (remedial coaching) for slow learners and advanced learners are advised to participate in various co-curricular activities, like; seminar, poster presentations, quizzes, projects, etc.
- A separate time-table is prepared for engaging remedial classes.
- At periodic intervals the performance of these students is assessed through tests conducted at class level.
- The faculties are available for these students at any time; on phone, through e-mail and other social media platforms.
- Advanced learners are motivated to present papers in conferences, seminars, workshop.
- Advanced learners are encouraged to develop their entrepreneurship skills by participating in various programmes/activities conducted by Incubation Center
