PO, PSO AND CO ATTAINMENT METHODOLOGY

CO Attainment Methodology

Methodology used for CO Attainment is Internal Evaluation and External Evaluation.

- 1) Internal Evaluation: It includes evaluation of Unit Test, Pre-semester, average attendance and overall behavior of students; the marks obtained are converted in percentage and 50% of this is added with 50% of External evaluation.
- 2) External evaluation: It includes evaluation of university examination. The marks obtained are converted in percentage; 50% of this is added with 50% of internal evaluation which is CO Attainment of individual student.
- 3) Total number of students above 60% is divided with total number of students attended and it is termed as CO Attainment.

PO, PSO Attainment Methodology

The Methodology used for PO Attainment includes Direct evaluation and Indirect evaluation.

- 1) Direct Evaluation: It is calculated by taking the average of all the CO Attainments under the Programmes and it is converted to 50%.
- 2) Indirect Evaluation: In this, factors such as, Student Exit Survey, Placement and Progression to higher education are considered for assessment which is converted to 50%.
- 3) The PO and PSO Attainment is calculated by adding 50% of Direct Evaluation and 50% of Indirect Evaluation.
